As usual my comments are not attached. If you'd like to read them I'd be happy to send them to you- just shoot me an e-mail.

Best,
 Lynne

Hi All,

Last Thursday night the Town Board held their regular meeting. For the most part it was the same-old, same old. That is, until New Business.

The dynamics of the Great Garbage 'To Bid or not to Bid' Debate were truly fascinating. And for the first time in my 3 years (gosh, time flies when you're having fun) of regular meeting's attendance there was actually a Town Board schism. Completely coincidentally, I think it was only the second time I've seen Town Attorney Charbonneau stand in for Assemblyman Stephens.

As always my comments are my own and reflect the skewed views of no one else. Commentary may not be for the faint hearted- or for those with good taste. Besides I'm totally disgusted with the 'no-bid' garbage contract and it shows. Anyhow, do yourself a favor and skip 'Garbage in/Garbage out'.

REGULAR MEETING:
Proclamation- Howes Family Day- October 8
March of Dimes Proclamation.

The proclamations were read aloud. Rebecca Wittenberg accepted the March of Dimes Proclamation.

15. Resolution- Providing for Section 75i New York State and Local Retirement System:

This regards Tier-1 employees and had to be clarified. Approved 5-0.

New Business:

Please see comments as I have neither the time nor patience to deal with this. For the unvarnished truth buy the DVD. I know I will.
